

List of Pages and UI elements:

1.Home Page

The Home Page UI diagram shows a header with a 'Use google account' button, a 'Username' field, a 'password' field, and a 'log in' button. Below the header, there are three project cards, each with a 'Name:' and 'Description' field. To the right of the cards is a 'Search Project' section with a search bar, a 'Search' button, and a list of filter choices. Arrows point from the search bar to the filter choices and from the 'Search' button to the search results area. A note indicates that after the user logs in, the panel will be changed. Another note states that some filter choices will be shown on the left of the page. A third note mentions that any matching project and results will be shown on the left of the page. A 'Previous Page/Next Page' link is located at the bottom right.

2.Profile Page

The Profile Page UI diagram shows a header with a 'Welcome!' message, a 'My profile' button, and a 'log out' button. Below the header, there are three main sections: 'Personal Information', 'Projects', and 'Rates&Comments'. The 'Personal Information' section includes a 'change info' button. The 'Projects' section includes a 'change info' button. The 'Rates&Comments' section includes a 'Leave comment' button. Arrows point from the 'Apply' button to the 'Personal Information' section, from the 'change info' button to the 'Projects' section, and from the 'Leave comment' button to the 'Rates&Comments' section. A note indicates that the user can apply for a new project and go to another page to fill in the details. Another note states that the list of all the projects that the user is currently undertaking is sorted by the project start time. The ongoing project has the color red, and the finished project has the color grey. And the role of this user will also be displayed. You can click on any project to go to another page to see the details of it. A third note mentions that others can leave comment for this user and rate him by his performance in the project. A fourth note states that these are all previous the rates, comments, and people who left those. A fifth note indicates that this page is public and everyone can see it. But user can change his personal information here while others can't.
